

A spacious and BEAUTIFULLY presented FOUR BEDROOM period property situated on a POPULAR ROAD close to EXCELLENT AMENITIES including Morrisons Supermarket, REPUTABLE LOCAL SCHOOLS and within approximately a mile to the mainline railway station.

Offers Over: £700,000

A spacious and characterful period home, offering generous accommodation arranged over three floors and extending to over 1,200 sq ft. This charming terrace property features a welcoming entrance hall leading into a bright and spacious lounge/dining room, enhanced by attractive wood flooring and a feature fireplace. To the rear, a modern and well-appointed kitchen/dining/family room is flooded with natural light and opens onto a generous yet low-maintenance garden, ideal for both everyday living and entertaining. The garden also benefits from gated rear access via the neighbouring property of No 83. The first floor comprises three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom, while the converted loft provides an impressive principal bedroom suite, complete with a Juliet balcony and contemporary en suite.

Castle Road is conveniently positioned close to highly regarded schools and a wide range of local shops, cafés and restaurants, making it a superb choice for families and professionals alike.
